THE CANADIANS.

THEY WILL AWAIT FURTHER ACTION BY UNCLE SAM

BEFORE THEY TAKE ACTION IN REGARD TO THE RETALIATION

Proposed By President Cleveland—Our Northern Neighbors Doubtless Very Hot Under the Collar at Assertions Made By Our Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Whitney. OTTAWA, Ont., Oct. 19.—A member of the government says there was not a word of truth in the report that immediately after President Cleveland's retaliation proposals Lord Salisbury cabled the Canadian government to remain silent on the matter until instructions were sent from Great Britain, or in other words, that England had assumed control of the dispute.

No action will be taken by the Canadian government until it is first seen what course the United States government will follow in the matter. Doubtless the provocation Canada has received during the past few weeks has been very great, the latest instance of it being furnished by Mr. Whitney, secretary of the navy of the United States, who calmly discusses the contingency of war with Great Britain, and predicts that Canada would be in the hands of the United States within a week after war had been declared.

The statement that the complaints of Canadians had been so bitter and urgent to the home government that the English premier had instructed the British minister at Washington to protest against the retaliation measure as an act of hostility to a friendly government, and also as a breach of the modus vivendi agreement which was made with Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, as representative of the British government at Washington, is not true. No remonstrances or complaints of any kind have been made by the Canadian government to her majesty's government on the subject of retaliation.

CORNERS IN BREADSTUFFS.

Chauncey M. Depew Interviewed Concerning Them—"Old Hutch's" Opinion.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—In an interview Chauncey M. Depew expressed the opinion that the various corners in breadstuffs that have been run in Chicago, have done more injury to the American farmers than of the manipulated trusts and monopolies.

"Corners have robbed this country of her control of the markets of the world. In 1881 the famous Keene corner forced prices so high that the British manufacturer became thoroughly frightened. He saw that it was possible for a few daring speculators in this country to put the price of food so high that laborers would be forced to demand higher wages, and the margin of profit on manufactured articles would be wiped out. England at once set to work to meet the emergency. Twenty thousand miles of railroad were built in India, and every mile opened up 100,000 acres of wheat land. Transportation facilities in Russia, Egypt and other parts of the world were greatly improved, the result being that America can no longer dictate the prices of bread in the markets of the world.

"The loss to the farmers of this country attributable to this corner can hardly be computed. Your corner of the other day is having and will continue to have, a disastrous effect. It has put the price of wheat in this country higher than it is in Liverpool, and all export business has been stopped. The ultimate effect of corners is bad upon the producer. The railroads lose by the operation, general business is checked, and the price of the daily loaf of millions of people is raised by four or five fellows in Chicago."

After reading Mr. Depew's remarks on corners, "Old Hutch" said: "What difference does it make if a loaf of bread does cost one cent more? A man don't eat more than one loaf a day, and flour is a very small part of the average man's daily diet. Mr. Depew is a smart man, but he doesn't understand the question. One man can no more put up the price of bread than a tadpole can hatch a thousand eagles. I suppose he wants the farmers to get thirty cents a bushel for grain, and he charge thirty-three cents a bushel to carry it to the seaboard.

"I don't want to say anything about Mr. Depew, but when a farmer is prosperous he buys lots of goods; he sends his folks a visiting, and they ride on the railroad. They spend money and make wages higher. The farmers makes this country what it is. Chauncey Depew may know something about raising a pet bull, but he doesn't know much about agriculture. Let him raise corn at twelve cents a bushel and wheat at forty cents, and go through a Dakota blizzard. After he's had that experience he will know more."

Telegraph Company Weakens.

LARAMIE, Wyo. T., Oct. 19.—Dilks Black, manager of the Western Union telegraph office at this point, who was fined $100 and committed to jail for failing to produce certain telegrams bearing on a case being tried in the district court, was released Tuesday. He was advised by the general solicitor of the company to furnish the messages asked for. Judge Saulty then remitted the fine, but required the manager to pay the costs.

An Iowa Wreck.

RIVINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 19.—Wednesday morning an extra freight train south crashed into the rear of the regular freight at this station. The caboose, several cars and the engine were badly wrecked. The damage will amount to $30,000. None of the trainmen were injured. The accident was caused by the failure of the brakes to hold.

Held Up By One Man.

FRESCOTT, Ariz., Oct. 19.—The stage from Jerome was "held up" yesterday near Sanderson station by one man. A small amount of money was secured from the five passengers. The mail was untouched.

Long-Distance Telephone.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The American Long-Distance Telephone company has opened connection between Buffalo and this city, the circuit measuring 455 miles.

WALTER S. PAYNE

Dishonorably Discharged From the Sons of Veterans.

DAYTON, O., Oct. 19.—The finding of the court martial in the case of Gen. Walter S. Payne, ex-commander-in-chief, Sons of Veterans, is that he be dishonorably discharged from the order upon the approval of the finding by the commander-in-chief.

GEN. WALTER S. PAYNE, of embezzlement, by appropriating the funds of the order to his own use; and the fourth, which charged a violation of the pledge given at the time of his muster, by depriving the order of the use of over $1,000 for more than one year, and until the principal was obtained by a threat of legal proceedings. The interest is still unpaid to the order.

On the first and third charges there was no conviction. The first, which charged in substance the same as the fourth, was found to be in bad form and was dismissed; while the third, which charged the distribution for political purposes of a portrait of the defendant, was not supported by sufficient proof.

Gen. Payne is the Prohibition candidate for secretary of state, and was formerly a partner of ex-Governor Foster.

Gen. Payne made a vigorous defense, and has served notice that he will try and review the proceedings before the next commandery-in-chief, which meets in Paterson, N. J., in August, 1889.

WEDDED A SIOUX.

A Young English Tourist Captivated By the Charms of a Chief's Daughter.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—A Herald special from Standing Rock, Dak., says: Henry Ashburton, son of a wealthy manufacturer of Leeds, England, and a young Sioux maiden, daughter of one of the leading chiefs, were married Wednesday according to Indian fashion. Ashburton is one of a party of tourists who recently came in to the reserve to hunt. Immediately after his arrival the young savage began to show her preference for him and he, notwithstanding the remonstrances of his friends, seemed no wise insensible to her charms. When he found that according to Sioux laws he must become her brave he was only too happy to abide by the law and make the pretty squaw his bride. The pleadings and expostulations of his companions had no effect, and they were married. The contract is considered by the Indians as being legal and binding, but it is thought the foolish young Indian will soon tire of his Indian bride, and make himself scarce in this region.

DAKOTA PRAIRIE F.R.S.

Considerable Damage Done Near Lake Mandan, Oliver County.

BISMARCK, Dak., Oct. 19.—A sweeping fire created a large amount of destruction in the neighborhood of Lake Mandan, Oliver county. Monday afternoon heavy clouds of smoke were observed in that direction, and a furious west wind commenced blowing, which soon spread down in the direction of Square Butte, the dry grass burning all through Tuesday night. Wednesday morning the wind again rose with the sun, when an unburned silt-rift, bearing down upon Sanger, was seen on fire, and it appeared for a time that the Oliver county court house would go up in smoke. The huge column of flames swept by and the whitened walls of the court house could be seen intact, though several outside buildings and hay stacks were consumed. As no one has been over the river since the fire the amount of damage has not been ascertained, though from the force of the wind the loss must of necessity be great. As near as can be learned no lives were lost.

Students Terribly Hurt at Foot Ball.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 19.—A serious and probably fatal accident happened on the campus of Franklin and Marshall college Wednesday. A game of foot ball was in progress when C. E. Hiller secured the ball. Immediately a rush was made for him, the foremost runners being William H. Keller and Charles D. Neff, who were on the "rush line." Just as they reached Hiller he slipped nimbly away from them and both young men rushed together with tremendous force. The shock threw both to the ground, and there they lay. Neff was in convulsions and Keller's face was covered with blood that streamed from an ugly wound over the right eye. Neff's injuries are considered very serious and he is still unconscious. Keller is also badly hurt. Keller resides in Bellefonte and Neff at Alexandria, Pa.

A Bad Boy Attempts Suicide.

MIEPINSBURG, Penn., Oct. 19.—"Good-by, mother, you won't whip me any more," said Johnny Gutelius, a thirteen-year-old boy. He had just received a whipping at the hands of his mother, and was sent to bed. Soon after he had gone upstairs, the mother heard the report of a revolver. Going to her son's room, she found the boy lying in a pool of blood, with a bullet wound in his forehead. The lad had attempted to commit suicide. The revolver was aimed too high, and the ball grazed his forehead and buried itself in the wall. He is now improving.

Married a Sister.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Anton Betz and Sister St. Mary, both of St. Catherine's hospital, Brooklyn, were married Wednesday night. Betz was an ambulance driver at the hospital. The Sister Mary's name previous to entering the institution was Julia Holly. They were married by Rev. Father Malone, who was not aware of the bride having belonged to the Order of St. Dominic.

The South Field Mine Still Burning.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 19.—The fire in the South Field mine is still burning. Fire engines are forcing water down the slope and delays of men are constantly fighting the flames. Three hundred men will be thrown out of work if the fire is not soon put out. It is thought that it will have to be flooded, which will cause a much greater delay.

ADJOURNMENT.

MR. ALLISON INTRODUCES A RESOLUTION IN THE SENATE.

IT IS AMENDED BY MR. BROWN AND FINALLY AGREED TO.

The Amendment Provides for an Adjournment Sine Die Next Saturday at 1 P. M. A Majority of the Republicans Oppose It—The Announcement of the Senate's Action Greeted With Cheers in the House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—When the resolution of Senator Allison for a recess came up in the senate, Mr. Paddock offered an amendment, making the recess from October 27 to November 12. Mr. Allison said that he had consulted senators on both sides of the chamber, and he believed the general opinion was that congress should adjourn.

He gave way to Mr. Brown, who offered an amendment providing for an adjournment sine die on Saturday at 1 p. m. Mr. Paddock insisted on a recess.

Mr. Allison finally accepted Mr. Brown's amendment.

It was reported as the original resolution and agreed to. A majority of the Republicans present voted against it.

The senate then held a brief executive session, after which Mr. Teller offered a resolution for investigation of alleged purchases of prison-made goods by the secretary of the interior. It was discussed at length.

When the announcement that the senate had passed an adjournment resolution was made in the house it was greeted with applause. Mr. McMillin, speaking on the resolution, made a long tariff speech.

This adjournment of the first session of the Fifty-third congress is made after an existence of twenty days more than any other session on record.

LATER—The house has concurred in the senate resolution to adjourn.

THE INDIAN CONFERENCE

Results in the Sioux Getting About Everything They Ask For.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Secretary Vilas again met the Sioux Indian chiefs at the interior department. He laid before them the conclusions reached by the president and himself upon the proposition of the Indians, as expressed in the first conference, upon the bill to relinquish a portion of their reservation. By these new terms it is agreed that for lands belonging to the Indians, entered for homestead settlements within three years from the date when the act shall have taken effect, $1 per acre shall be paid; for all lands thus entered two years thereafter, seventy-five cents per acre; for all such lands entered after five years, fifty cents per acre.

After five years, it is stipulated, congress may provide for any disposition of the lands remaining unsold which shall be deemed proper, provided that not less than fifty cents per acre is placed to the credit of the Indians. It is also granted that instead of $1,000,000 mentioned in the act, $2,000,000 shall be appropriated. From this sum, six months after the bill becomes a law, $200 shall be paid to each Indian, of whatever sex or age. This payment does not affect the right of the Indian to the allotment of $20 provided for in the bill.

The funds provided for by this act shall be divided by the secretary of the interior into six separate funds, corresponding with the reservations which are to be established, the division to be regulated according to the number of Indians receiving rations at the said reservation. The Santee Sioux Indians are excluded from the provisions of this act.

Adult Indians, upon making an allotment of land, it is provided, shall have a span of American mares with double harness instead of a yoke of oxen, if he choose, besides one milch cow, agricultural implements, tools, seeds and money provided for in the act.

The secretary explained these conditions at length, and said that he wanted the Indians to make up their minds before they left the city whether they would accept the terms or not. The ratification of all the adult Indians has to be obtained in any event. The Indians said they would let the secretary know when they had reached a decision.

It is expected that they will call upon the secretary to-morrow. In case the Indians accept the new terms, they must be enacted into a law by congress. With the exception of receiving $1.25 per acre and the payment of the entire amount in a lump, the Indians by these modifications obtained what they asked for.

WON'T DO IT.

President Yerkes Answer to Citizens Who Want Fair Play.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Mayor Boldenweck, of Lake View, Ill., and his committee of citizens asked President Yerkes, of the Chicago cable roads, to carry out the compromise made with the striking gripman in the way that the agreement was generally understood, by giving the men full employment instead of three-fifths time.

Mr. Yerkes emphatically refused, and later in the day the residents of the North Side and Lake View held an indignation meeting, and the 300 present organized a protective association.

Several of the new gripmen were assaulted and severely beaten Wednesday.

The strike is not settled.

Capt. Villiers Wednesday gave orders to search all the new men at the limits barns. Sergt. Sprenger and Edward Furthman, the company's attorney, accordingly went to the barns and searched all the new men, one after another, as they came in.

Nearly every one of them was carrying a weapon of some description, and the result of the search—about seventy-five revolvers, several steel knuckles and clubs—were placed in the safe at the police station.

A Brakeman's Horrible Death.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 19.—Grip Haunchin, a brakeman on the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, residing in this city, had his foot caught in a frog at Thornton, this morning, and was run over by the cars and killed.

Nat. C. Goodwin Married.

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Mr. Nat. C. Goodwin, the well known comedian, was privately married in this city a few days ago to Miss Nellie Baker, who is described as a prominent society woman from the east. Great precautions were taken to keep the nuptials a profound secret, and they were partially successful. The marriage license was suppressed, and only one or two of Goodwin's most trusted and intimate friends were admitted to the ceremony, and even these were solemnly pledged not to reveal what they knew. It leaked out, however, and when asked if it were true, he finally admitted it. Mr. Goodwin and his bride are stopping at the Grand Pacific. His friends declare that one reason for his anxiety to keep his marriage a secret is his great antipathy to the jokes and congratulations of his numerous acquaintances.

Destitute Fireworks.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Oct. 19.—Wednesday evening while the Thurman procession was forming a large truck load of fireworks was passing through the crowd, when a rocket fell on the load, and instantly an explosion followed. R. L. Smith, manager of the Academy of Music, who had charge of the pyrotechnics, was very badly burned, and will probably lose both eyes. Lorenzo Bouse, the driver, was horribly mangled, and died at the city hospital. James Witroe was also badly burned.

Stabbed With White-Hot Iron Bar.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 19.—Mat. Burrows and John Watters, puddlers at the Valley mill, became engaged in an altercation. Burrows, becoming enraged, drew a long heavy iron bar from his furnace and struck Watters in the side with it. The end of the bar was white-hot, and Watters' shirt was burned away, a frightful hole being burned in his side. Burrows was arrested. Watters is in a serious condition.

Fatal Ending of a Spree.

BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 19.—James M. Ware, for some years circuit court clerk, and later a prominent contractor and builder, while on a spree Tuesday night, ascended the stairs leading to a private boarding house kept by a Mrs. Bird and her son-in-law, Pease, a printer. Pease met him at the head of the stairs and threw him headlong down them, a distance of twenty feet. His skull was badly fractured, and after lingering unconscious several hours Ware died.

Brutally Beaten.

DANVILLE, Ill., Oct. 19.—Hank Fortner, formerly a passenger conductor on the Chicago & Eastern Illinois railroad, now a saloonkeeper and prominent local politician, while on his way home last night was waylaid and so frightfully maltreated by unknown parties that his recovery is uncertain. The police are puzzled over the affair because no robbery was committed.

Not Evidence Enough to Hold Him.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 19.—Before Alderman Spurrier, this morning, Calvin M. Dellinger, charged with the murder of his wife, Mary, whose body was found on the bank of the Little Conestoga creek, on Friday, October 5, was dismissed from custody, there not being sufficient evidence to hold him for trial.

The Shortage Expected to Grow.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Oct. 19.—L. H. Sionaker, cashier in the Chicago & Northwestern freight office here, disappeared last Saturday. The company's auditor has discovered a shortage of $3,200 in Sionaker's accounts. The books are in bad shape, and the shortage may be much larger.
